50X1-HUM

1. A Czechoslovak mission arrived in Wroclaw (Breslau) on 7 October 1947 to arrange for the transfer of a portion of Czechoslovakia's inland waterways fleet to the Odra River.
2. The boats to be transferred will have an aggregate tonnage of around 31,000 tons deadweight, with a proportionate number of tugs. They are to be taken over by the "Polska Zagluga Na Odrze" (Polish Oder Navigation Company) about 1 November 1947. One Czechoslovak representative will be attached permanently to this company.
3. The Czechoslovaks are also expected to provide cranes and other loading facilities at Kosze (Cosel) (P51/Y98), the Polish Odra River port between Opole (Opeln) (J17) and Raciborz (Ratibor) (Y05).
